Minutes of the IQAC Meeting held on 19.12.2020

According to the resolutions of the Online meeting of the IQAC members, Students Exhibition Committee 2020, faculties conducted via Google Meet, the following is being notified to all concerned.

1. The Exhibition Committee proposes that a new date should be considered for submission of new works. A minimum of two weeks (14 days) from now should be given to all students to complete a new work for submission. However, this new submission must not be compulsory for all.

2. New date of submission will be intimated to students through a separate notice. A centralized, department wise submission link will be sent to students (using GOOGLE forms) to streamline the data collection and selection process. This will help us in data uniformity. Submission links will be made available by the coordination committee to the Jury, for final selection of art works. Students may submit maximum of one new work for selection, however department selection committee may choose to select/consider old works submitted on or before 17th December 2020, following the earlier notice.

3. The tentative college exhibition budget and other funding options should be immediately discussed to start the process. According to the allotted budget, virtual exhibition platforms will be purchased. This time the required amount need to be paid in advance and in full, otherwise the online virtual exhibition platforms cannot be purchased from the service providers.

4. Tentative Date of the commencement of Actual Online Exhibition will be notified to all after submission of all works and procurement of required platform.

5. A faculty representative from each specialization should be nominated by the In-charge(s), who will communicate with the coordination committee regarding all matters concerning the respective departments. The Representative's name should be submitted to the undersigned by 21.12.2020.

6. A separate category for watercolour and photography could be kept where all interested students can submit their works for selection. An extremely limited number of outstanding works will be finally selected by selection committee and showcased in the virtual exhibition. The actual number will be decided by the coordination committee and will be informed to the selection committee.

7. The specific list of awards/merits should be provided to the selection and coordination committee.
