CRITERION I – CURRICULAR ASPECTS

Government College of Art and Craft, Calcutta, proposes a number of programmes in Fine Arts. This institution offers a four year integrated course comprising of one year in Foundation and three years in Specialization. Foundation course leading to a B.F.A. professional degree has been introduced from the session 2003-04, replacing the five year integrated B.F.A. course offered since 1985. Bachelor of Fine Arts is followed by a two-year post-graduate curriculum leading to an M.F.A. Degree. The curriculum of GCAC itself is so enriched and includes things that helps the students to engage them in various ways of creating art. The College is housed in a large building (built in 1892) adjacent to the Indian Museum in the heart of the city of Kolkata. It has adequate painting studio facility, open-air working space, furnaces and metal casting workshop, a Photo-lab, gallery-cum-seminar hall with latest audio visual system, an open-air stage that claims its lineage from the 19th century. Beside studio practices, students often visit outdoor areas, make necessary nature studies and successfully establish a thread with the nature. GCAC students maintain the institution's garden as well as the surrounded area which includes ponds and greeneries to keep the environment clean as well as sustainable. The Institution does have an adequately large playground with an open auditorium. Especially during the time of winter, students play badminton, cricket, and football within the college premises. The college is in the heart of the city Kolkata and there are large playgrounds in the nearby areas where students often take their outdoor classes as well as involve themselves in physical activities. Cultural programmes such as Annual Exhibition, Fresher's Welcome are arranged within the college premises every year. Apart from the outdoor auditorium there is Aban Gallery too, which was named after the eminent artist Abanindranath Tagore, is a closed interior space which is largely used for lectures and presentations. To keep up with the changing world, the institute has modified its curriculum and infrastructure from time to time. It has always been an implicit goal of our college to help the society and the country as a whole by ensuring equity and an increased access to higher education. The college has been producing artists and designers who work in the national and international level. They are ready to face the global requirements successfully and meet the demand of internationally acceptable standards. The young pass-outs, ingenuous, resourceful, entrepreneurial in their approach, are skilled enough to imbue their training and achieve a higher level of competency. The institution collaborates with industries, different agencies and other academic institutions to achieve constant upliftment of innate creative power. Students are recommended and assigned artworks for various external projects coming time to time from different resources and Local entrepreneurs. Projects are offered by several gallery owners, corporate sectors, art dealers, market places, social institutions etc. The college lends
